What if three 10-year-old boys got their hands on a book that could send them anywhere in time or space? And what if they discovered that their three great-granddaughters, living in the year 2105, had the exact same Book? Meet the TIME WARP TRIOs—six amazing kids who will take you on wild, action-packed adventures throughout time and around the world.

Joe, Sam, and Fred are three ordinary city kids, until Joe receives a magic book from his hit-or-miss magician uncle (Joe the Magnificent). Whenever it's opened, it leaks green time warping mist and whisks them off to confront Samurai in Shogun-era Japan, or duel with gladiators in Ancient Rome, or outwit a nasty priest in Ancient Egypt, or—let's just say the possibilities are endless. In each episode, the boys, or the girls, or the boys AND the girls give us their unique take on history. But remember, traveling through time is no stroll in the park.

As with all great action-adventure stories, the kids must use their wits, their skills—skateboarding, baseball, magic tricks—and their smarts to outwit the Bad Guys and survive. (Oh, and find the Book so they can get back home.) Wherever they end up, TIME WARP TRIO will treat viewers to an unforgettable adventure, designed to entertain, educate, inspire and inform.
