AMERICA AT WAR

The Great War
The involvement of the United States in the First World War forever changed the way the nation saw itself and its place in the world. The great conflict would also fundamentally change the nature of American society, undermining the progressive movement, giving birth to the national security state, reordering the place of women and African Americans in the culture and changing the government’s role in almost every aspect of the American economy. Available in time for the 100th anniversary of the U.S. entering World War I on April 6, 1917, this series explores the defining outcome of the United States’ experience in the Great War. 3x120, 6x60 HD

The Battle of Chosin
As troops of the U.S. Army’s X Corps were pushing north through the Korean peninsula to drive North Korea’s invading Communist Army out of democratically-held South Korea in 1950, they found themselves completely surrounded by more than 85,000 Chinese soldiers. The Battle of Chosin recounts the conflict in intimate detail through eyewitness accounts, presenting a harrowing narrative of combat and survival in the first major military clash of the Cold War. 1x114, 2x53 HD

The War of 1812
For two and a half years, Americans fought against the British, Canadian colonists, and native nations. Some of the War of 1812’s battles and heroes became legendary, yet its blunders and cowards were just as prominent. This film shows how the glories of war become enshrined in history, how failures are quickly forgotten, and how inconvenient truths are ignored forever. With stunning reenactments, evocative animation, and the incisive commentary of key experts, The War of 1812 presents the conflict that forged the destiny of a continent. 2x53 HD

CURRENT AFFAIRS, SOCIAL ISSUES

Last Days of Solitary
Follow what happens to recently released prisoners when they go from solitary to the streets. With extraordinary access to the Maine State Prison, the film examines the long-term effects of solitary confinement and efforts to reduce its use in the United States. 1x120 HD

Trading History
For the very first time, history is investigated through the prism of the auction house. In this new series, viewers embark on an investigative and genealogical journey where intriguing family histories are revealed through personal artifacts. For many items, this may be the last chance outsiders have to see each object before they disappear into private collections. 6x60 HD

CURRENT AFFAIRS

Out of Gitmo
From FRONTLINE and NPR comes the dramatic story of a Gitmo detainee released from the controversial U.S. prison after 14 years and the struggle over freeing prisoners once deemed international terrorists. The untold history of the Guantanamo Bay prison is also examined in this film. 1x60 HD
Last Days of Jesus
The final week of Jesus’ life, known as Holy Week, stands at the very center of Christianity. The Bible paints a picture of Jesus as a local preacher who ran up against the Roman rulers in Jerusalem and paid for it with his life. But new evidence offers a very different image of Jesus—as an astute leader with ties to the most powerful people in Rome. This extraordinary docudrama presents new insight into the iconic Easter events through arresting documentary sequences filmed in Israel and Italy and dramatic scenes that help uncover the explosive Roman power politics that ultimately nailed Jesus to the cross. 1x120, 2x60 HD

Military Medicine: Beyond the Battlefield
Hear the stories of the men and women who are at the forefront of the medical frontier, winning victories for military personnel and civilians. ABC News correspondent Bob Woodruff, who was critically injured in Iraq and was saved by the advances in military medical care, brings his personal understanding of the issues as he covers military medical advances and technology from the battlefield to the return home. 1x60 HD

Sacred
At a time when religious hatred dominates the world’s headlines, Sacred immerses the viewer in the daily use of faith and spiritual practice, exploring religion as a primary human experience and how people turn to ritual and prayer to navigate the milestones and crises of private life. Filmed by more than 40 teams around the world, each contributing a single scene, some without narration, Sacred’s global in reach yet intensely intimate, exploring a range of religious traditions. 1x90 HD

Arthur
ARTHUR chronicles the adventures of an eight-year-old aardvark through engaging, emotional stories that explore issues faced by real kids. Aimed at viewers aged 4–8 and celebrating 20 years this award-winning season, this series fosters interest in reading and writing as well as encourages positive social skills. 18x30 HD

GAME CHANGERS IN SCIENCE

Rachel Carson
When Rachel Carson’s seminal book, Silent Spring, was published in 1962 it became a phenomenon that shaped the modern environmental movement. As the debate about pesticides continues today, this two-hour biography draws upon the latest research to provide an illuminating portrait of writer and scientist Rachel Carson. 1x114 HD

Tesla
Nikola Tesla has come to be seen by many as a tragic figure—a brilliant inventor who died impoverished and largely forgotten, eclipsed by names such as Edison and Marconi. Yet it was his technology that helped drive the electrical age in the 20th century and his vision that imagined the wireless world of the 21st century. Tesla chronicles the life of a visionary whose ideas revolutionized his time, and ours. 1x53 HD

Space Men
In August 1960, Air Force Captain Joseph Kittinger lifted off in a helium balloon, went nearly 20 miles above the earth, stepped out of the balloon and then went hurtling at over four hundred miles per hour back to earth…and survived. Space Men tells the little-known story of Kittinger and the men whose scientific experiments in the stratosphere laid critical groundwork for NASA’s manned space program, helping to make the very idea of space travel a reality. 1x52 HD

The Age of Consequences
Investigates the impact of climate change on increased resource scarcity, human migration and conflict through the lens of U.S. national security and global stability. Through unflinching case-study analysis, distinguished military leaders and veterans take us beyond the headlines of the conflict in Syria, the social unrest of the Arab Spring, the rise of radicalized groups like ISIS and the European refugee crisis to lay bare how climate change stressors interact with societal tensions and spark conflict.

Why Trains Crash
In a world that is coming to eschew excessive use of fossil fuels and encourage public transportation, trains are becoming more and more popular. They are faster and more modern, but are they safer? This high-speed, action-packed program joins the pioneers of train technology to discover the thrilling advancements which may usher in a new age of safer, faster and more modern trains—from high-tech laser track sensors, to drones, to alternative systems such as maglevs.

The Trouble with Chicken
Every year, Salmonella causes more hospitalizations and deaths than any other foodborne illness, with about one in four pieces of raw chicken contaminated with Salmonella today. Why isn’t the U.S. food safety system stopping the threat? Correspondent David E. Hoffman investigates how and why the standards and laws around Salmonella have failed to keep up with the increasing danger posed by some strains of the bacteria.

Search for the Super Battery
Over the decades, energy storage technology has barely budged in power, capacity or convenience. Even though there have been some improvements in the last century, batteries remain finicky, bulky, expensive, toxic and maddeningly short-lived. Host David Pogue sets out on a quest to discover what the future has in store for our gadgets and visits scientists, inventors and entrepreneurs who are challenging everything we think we know about batteries.

FOLLOWING THE FOOD CHAIN

The Fish on My Plate
Journalist and author Paul Greenberg spends a year eating only fish. From farmed fish in Norway to the biggest wild fishery in the world off Peru, he travels to investigate the health of the ocean—as well as his own—in this report for FRONTLINE.

The Trouble with Chicken
Every year, Salmonella causes more hospitalizations and deaths than any other foodborne illness, with about one in four pieces of raw chicken contaminated with Salmonella today. Why isn’t the U.S. food safety system stopping the threat? Correspondent David E. In Defense of Food
Based on Michael Pollan’s best-selling book, In Defense of Food shows how a combination of uncertain and incomplete science, politicians and clever marketing campaigns have shaped the world’s eating habits in ways that have made us continuously less healthy. From crowded American supermarkets to the vast plains of Tanzania, In Defense of Food examines how the modern Western diet, especially as it has evolved over just the past few decades, is doing serious damage to our health.
After Stonehenge

A team of archaeologists are excavating an ancient village in Cambridgeshire, England known as “The British Pompeii,” that has transformed history’s picture of life in Bronze Age Britain. Inside perfectly preserved roundhouses, the team has discovered everything from Britain’s oldest wheel to swords used in battle. The biggest revelation was proof of technology needed to produce cloth which has never been seen before in Britain and proves these villagers’ lives were anything but primitive. 1x55 HD

The First Silent Night

The First Silent Night introduces two impoverished children—Joseph Mohr and Franz Gruber—who grew up in Austria’s cobbled streets and wooded villages. The hard years that shaped them would eventually lead them to a meeting in a poor country church where they united Gruber’s music and Mohr’s text in what would become the classic carol about the birth of a boy on a quiet night in ancient Palestine. Join renowned actor Simon Callow as he journeys to the Austrian village of Oberndorf and the city of Salzburg, where he uncovers the moving origins of the world’s most beloved carol. 1x60 HD

Holocaust Escape Tunnel

At the height of WWII, the Nazis murdered the Jews of Vilna, Lithuania and razed its sacred sites. By the time the war ended, almost no trace of the centuries-old civilization or its people was left. Albert Einstein, Sigmund Freud, Al Jolson and Leonard Cohen are a few of those whose ancestors called Lithuania home. Since the war, the historic Jerusalem of Lithuania faded into history, seemingly destined to be forgotten—until now. A spectacular archaeological dig is being mounted to unearth the hidden treasures of this lost place and solve lingering mysteries related to its destruction. They will unearth Vilna’s lost temple, recover its treasures, locate hidden graves and learn the truth of both its heroes and its traitors. Time is running short. Only a handful of witnesses and survivors are alive. NOVA has the exclusive access to follow this excavation, tell the stories and restore the memory of this lost world. 1x60 HD

Ghost Army

During World War II, a hand-picked group of American GIs undertook a bizarre mission: create a traveling road show of deception on the battlefields of Europe, with the Nazi German Army as their audience. The U.S. 23rd Headquarters Special Troops used inflatable rubber tanks, sound trucks, and dazzling performance art to bluff the enemy again and again, often right along the front lines. This little-known unit’s knack for trickery was crucial to Allied success in World War II, but their top-secret mission was kept quiet for nearly 50 years after the war’s end. 1x56 HD

Killer Subs in Pearl Harbor
