From the team behind FRONTLINE's acclaimed documentary The Choice 2016 comes Trump's Road to the White House—an investigation of how Donald Trump defied expectations to win the presidency. Through revealing interviews with campaign insiders, this documentary from filmmaker Michael Kirk and his team tells the inside story of how, despite historically high unfavorability ratings, Trump successfully tapped into frustration and calls for change to win the election. Trump's Road to the White House examines how Trump rallied millions of supporters and defeated adversaries—and what it suggests about how he will govern.
