For months, reports of Russian interference in the 2016 U.S. presidential election have dominated the headlines. But what does Vladimir Putin really want? In a special, two-part documentary with original reporting in Moscow and Washington, D.C., FRONTLINE filmmaker Michael Kirk and the series' award-winning political team examine Putin's rise, rule and motivations. Against the backdrop of investigations by the FBI and Congress into possible collusion between Trump campaign members and Russian officials, the documentary traces how Putin went from low-ranking KGB agent, to long-serving president of a newly assertive Russia with the ability to wage cyber-war in the U.S. and across the globe.
